Americans Marooned in Germany Faring Well

That Americans in Germany are better off than those in other parts of the war territory was indicated in official dispatches to the State Department today. Ambassador Gerard cabled from Berlin and consuls in other parts of Germany wired that Americans are safe and comfortable.

safe and comfortable.

Dispatches indicated that the prohibition by Germany against any American leaving until after mobilization proved good fortune instead of hardship, by keeping them in the places they were. In most other parts of the war zone the greatest hardship same when the farightened Americans hurried away without any baggage.

Lord of Lords and King of Kings. Thou doest Thy will in the armies of Heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth; none can stay Thy hand and none hath a right to say unto Thee What doest Thou? Clouds and darkness are round about Thee, and none by searching can find Thee out. But we bless Thee that Thou are our Father. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth us. Thou hast redeemed us and adopted us into Thy family and given us the right to all the privileges of the sons of God. "In the assurance of Thy love our hearts are not troubled. We receive Thy peace, which Thou giveth—not as the world giveth. This day, O Lord, we bless Thee for all those who have died in the Lord and who now rest from their labors, having received the end of their faith, even the salvation of their soul. Especially we call to remembrance Thy loving kindness and Thy tender mercies to this, Thy servant. VACATION

At this season of the year, when the days are so delightfully long, there steals over us a desire to flee from the busy marts of commerce and trade and answer the call of the breezes soughing through the mountains or the never-ceasing voice from the seashore.

To answer this call is to find rest, relaxation and recreation, and the definition of these three Rs changes with the desires and tastes of the individual. Some find recreation in pursuing the joys of Terpsichore, while others prefer to float listlessly along the banks of a languorous stream, watching the moon playing hide and seek with the clouds.

To meet the requirement of our readers we have assembled at our Resort Bureau a list of pooklets and rolders de scriptive of many attractive places. Write and tell us what you want and we will find it and tell you how to get there.
